Japan Looking For Resumption Of Trade, Says Diet Member

By Kay Shimizu

Ottawa, Ont.

After being delayed almost twenty-four hours by bad flying weather, the fourteen Diet members from Japan arrived in Ottawa on Thursday afternoon to see how democracy actually works in our nation's capital. Friday morning they were quizzed by members of the Parliamentary Press Gallery, and through Takizo Matsumot o, People's Cooperative Party member and a Harvard graduate, who acted as interpreter, they talked on a wide variety of subjects.

Chairman of the group, Takeshi Yamazaki, secretary general of the Democratic Liberal Party which is comparable to the Conservative Party here, and is the one holding a majority at this time, expressed appreciation for the opportunity to see democracy in action and said that the trip was proving to be extremely interesting and profitable. All parties except the Communists, who refused to cooperate, were represented in the delegation. The members were chosen by the President of the House of Councillors and the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and were in no way controlled by General MacArthur, but free to express their own opinions. The group said they had nothing but praise for MacArthur and his policies, and thought he was doing a wonderful job.

In answer to questions on trade, and particularly to comments on the doubtful techniques employed by pre-war Japan such as cut-rate prices, dumping tactics, and misleading trademarks, a member of the delegation replied that a new Charter of Trade approved by the occupation authorities had been drawn up. Mistakes admittedly had been made in the past, but Japan was now looking toward the future and doing everything possible to resume trade and be accepted once again in the family of nations.

Mr. Asanuma, a member of the Social Democratic Party which is based on principles similar to the British Labor Party, emphasized the development of trade union activity and the growing awareness by labor of its important role in influencing national policy, and its determination to see that the mistakes of the past were not repeated.

The plight of the Japanese prisoners of war being held by Soviet Russia was touched upon, but the delegation had no comments to make on the rapidly spreading tide of communism in China and South East Asia, saying that it did not concern them as foreign relations were still very much under the control of SCAP. Unlike Germany, there is no attempt being made to rearm Japan. In fact, as Mr. Matsumoto pointed out, Japan is now one of the most peace-minded nations in the world.

Mr. Matsumoto proved himself an extremely able interpreter and spokesman for the group. Four or five of the younger men carried the main part of the discussion, and their expressed interest in working for a new Japan based on democratic principles, and their frankness in admitting past errors, created a favorable impression.

...isher, Exporter, Lumberman, ...osen As Outstanding Japanese

A total of 36 names, of whom only 15 are still living, were submitted as those persons contributing most towards the welfare and advancement of those of Japanese ancestry residing in Canada. This was the result of the selection of the "Japanese Canadian of the Half-Century" conducted by poll by the Japanese section of The New Canadian.

The top five were in order, Etsu Suzuki, Yasushi Yamazaki, Shinkichi Tamura, Eikichi Kagetsu and Jiro Inouye. Of the five mentioned, only Mr. Kagetsu is living.

Etsu Suzuki, who polled 21 percent of the vote, was formerly the editor of the Daily People, and was instrumental in spreading the labor union movement among Japanese workers, and strove to enlighten the Japanese people on democratic ideals.

Yasushi Yamazaki (10.7 percent) was one of the pioneer leaders among the Japanese in Canada and organized the fishermen's union among the Japanese. He organized and published the Tairiku Nippo. He died in Japan a few years ago.

Shinkichi Tamura (7.7 percent) was an outstanding Japanese businessman in the export-import trade between Canada and Japan and was the first to ship Canadian wheat to Japan.

Eikichi Kagetsu, (7.7 percent) a successful lumberman on the B. C. coast before the evacuation, was also influential in Japanese welfare.

Jiro Inouye (5.4 percent) was one of the most well educated Japanese pioners and was an outstanding leader. He was one of the early farmers to settle in Haney, B. C.

Among the others who were nominated were Tomekichi Homma who was first to bring up the question of the franchise, Arichika Ikeda who explored what is now known as Ikeda Bay in the Queen Charlotte Islands and discovered a copper mine, Yasutaro Yamaga who organized the farmers' co-operative, Jinsaburo Oikawa who brought Japanese immigrants to Canada to settle on Lion Island which was known among the Japanese as Oikawa Island, the late Dr. Shuichi Kusaka, the brilliant physicist, and the only woman to be named, Mrs. Toshiko Oikawa.

All Groups Minorities In Some Respects, Says Negro Speaker

Speaking before a brotherhood rally on Sunday, Feb. 26, Dr. Mordecai Johnson, Negro president of Howard University in Washington, D. C., reminded the more than a 1,000 who were present, that all groups are majorities in some aspects and minorities in others. He cited the Negro and the Jew to illustrate his point.

"The Negro, on this continent," he said, "are in the color minority, while as Christians, they are in the religious majority. The Jews are in the religious minority but in the color majority."

In the meeting of members of two different minorities, one would use his majority status to humble the other, he asserted.

The rally was sponsored by the women's division of the Toronto committee of the Canadian Council of Christians and Jews. Besides being the president of Howard College, Dr. Johnson is a member of President Truman's national advisory council on education.

Japan May Locate Consulate In Canada

TOKYO. — The Canadian government, according to sources here, is not opposed to having a Japanese overseas office in Canada such as those which are proposed in the United States. As a step towards semi-diplomatic relations, unofficial Japanese consulate offices are expected to be opened shortly in New York, San Francisco, Los Angeles and Honolulu.

Such a representation, if set up in Canada, would record births and deaths of Japanese citizens residing in Canada as well as to promote trade.

Claims Social Club Intended For Gambling

VANCOUVER, B. C. — Chief Constable Walter Mulligan stated he would oppose the granting of a license to two Japanese Canadian applicants to operate a social club, as gambling was the purpose of the club and that the building is unsuitable.

Notice was given to the Vancouver civic licenses and claims committee early last week that they would make application for charter for their club under the a license when they receive a Provincial Societies Act. Aldermen George Miller and Bert Showler, members of the committee indicated that they would oppose the granting of the license, not on racial grounds, but because of the nature of the club.

Proceeds Of Concert To Go Towards Charity

WINNIPEG. — The Nisei Young Women's Club will present a Spring Variety Concert on Friday, April 14, at the YWCA auditorium starting at 8 p.m.

The proceeds of this concert will be used for charitable purposes. Tickets may be obtained from members.

American Evacuees File 24,000 Claims

WASHINGTON, D. C. — The Justice Department last week announced that a total of 24,081 evacuation claims were filed by persons of Japanese ancestry seeking restitution for real and personal property damages suffered in their evacuation from the West Coast, several months after the outbreak of war.

Total value of the claims will not be ascertained until after the Justice Department completes the rather lengthy and technical job of processing, indexing and filing the forms received. However, it has been previously estimated that the total value of all evacuation claims may exceed $50,000,000.

To date, only a handful of claims have actually been paid, although last year the Justice Department was granted $1,000,000 for paying claims finally adjudicated, together with $200,000 for processing claims.

Mike Masaoka, national JACL ADC legislative director, said it was hoped the department could materially speed action on the program which, at best, has been moving at a noticeably slow pace.

Nixed White Supremacy Offer, Now Paying Off

NATCHES, Miss. — Despite its run-down financial condition, the Jefferson Military College declined a $50,000,000 offer because it stipulated a condition that the school teach "white supremacy". Since then, the school's stock has gone up and it is now faced with a capacity enrolment next September.

ANTI-DISCRIMINATORY MEASURES PROPOSED

Both sides of the political fence in the Ontario Legislature have indicated that the province shall have anti-discriminatory laws. The Government through the Throne speech revealed that it seeks prohibition of restrictive covenants that discriminate against race, color or creed. Meanwhile, a member of the official Opposition has drawn up a bill which if enacted would outlaw employment discrimination in the province.

How far these bills will get in the present session remains to be seen. Provided that it is introduced in good time, the bill proposed by the Government stands a good chance of passage before the current session is concluded. However, the fair employment practices measure, which is much more far-reaching, and introduced by the CCF opposition, will probably face stiff opposition, especially in its present form.

It is noteworthy that the time has come when legislative bodies here must now tackle the problem of discrimination. It can no longer be side-stepped or disregarded. The issue now confronts our elected representatives straight in the face, and we can watch their reactions to it.

It is also noteworthy that these measures are being introduced in the province in which there has been the most public clamour for action against discrimination. The newspapers have been most vehement against it, organizations have grouped to fight it, and delegations have urged the government to do something about it. All this has done much to bring the matter to the attention of the Ontario Legislature.

The fair-minded citizens and organizations of other provinces should take note.

Getting Nowhere Fast

By V. O.

Many an article has been written on the topic of racial prejudice. We know that its manifestations exist. But to be able to combat and curb the energies of prejudice into more humanely beneficial channels, we must first know what prejudice itself is.

Some may call me morbid-minded (one has called me a hypocrite in no mistakable manner) while others more understanding may classify me as one of those individuals seeking general knowledge. Anyways, I happened to take cursory glances at two articles that appeared in Life and Standard Magazines the other week . . . both articles concerned the Read method of child delivery. Now I know that I'm commenting on something strictly out of my sphere, but I believe that what the Read method does is not eliminate pain, but rather it eliminates the fear of pain. Some children have a fear of cops, but as they grow older, that fear is lessened; but the existance of the cop is not. Now I recognize that the elimination of fear lessens the tension and that the latter lessens some of the pain. BUT . . .

Well, anyways, I inserted the preceding paragraph to bring out a point. That prejudice also has its exterior manifestations of fear and resulting tension in turn creating conflict. But what we must recognize is that the curtailment of conflict, and tension and fear does not necessarily mean that prejudice itself has been eliminated.

Now again, the immediately preceding paragraph was inserted to bring out another important point, and it concerns the legislative laws to prohibit racial discrimination. Many people snicker and with the shrug of their dignified shoulder assert that you can't outlaw racial discrimination and they are correct. So for the sake of clarity and understanding let us once and for all see as to what this stuff - racial discrimination and prejudice is.

Literally speaking, we can't outlaw racial discrimination. Any person with eye-sight knows that there are certain "racial" differences between Negroes and Caucasians, or between Mongoloids and Austroloids. We know that there are differences in skin pigmentation, in hair texture, and in their respective physical appearances. When one notices these differences, and it is natural that one should, then he is using "racial" discrimination. However, when one begins to not only discriminate between yellow and white, but also label values on them, then he is dealing in prejudice.

Now, Frank, you say that you don't agree with my articles even before reading them, therefore, at this moment, you should be flipping through your lexicon to see what it says about discrimination. Well, Frank, to show you just how individualistic (or obstinate) I am, herewith quote me as disagreeing with Webster. In France they have a circle of dignified sages known collectively as the French Academy. One of their duties is to see to it that the French vocabulary does not become as corrupt as the English one has. Unfortunately, our lexicographers are most sensitive to "public usage", and so accordingly (but not wisely) give new meanings to old words. Of course the silver lining in this process of word mutation is that such words as Negro and Japanese will no longer carry certain stigmas and connotations given it today.

However, to get back to the topic—then Frank, you and I are agreed (oh, that such as miserable day should come!), that discrimination is sensorial, that is through our five senses, we distinguish between thisa and thata. Now, to stretch out illusion a little further, again we are agreed, (stop fidgeting Frank!) that prejudice is something emotional and irrational.

Now, the subject of race prejudice today has become so important that finally it has been given a technical name, racism. And racism is defined (don't be so silly, Frank, put that Webster down!) as mythology. Or, in other words, racial prejudice or racism is based on religion. (no sacrilege is meant.) To prove that this or that "race" is superior, persons have used the cephalic index (measuring the width and length of the human head), the I.Q., the blood, Sex, etc. etc. to justify scientifically that his race is superior.

The white man says that he is superior to the Negro because the latter looks more like the ape, but the White man expediently forgets that he resembles the ape in hairiness (Negroes have little hair), in his thin lips (apes have thin lips), and in [illegible] . . . At the end [illegible] I approached her and said that she was unconsciously preaching Mahayana Buddhism. She looked at me without flinching an eyelash (and that alone is some feat, Frank!) and replied that it was not unconsciously that she was advocating Buddhism. Quakerism was born in the 17th century under the leadership of George Fox, a man essentially moved by the social injustices of the day. Buddhism was extant at least in the year 500 B.C. when Gaukama Buddha attained enlightenment, then returned from Nirvana to preach the Path towards Bodhi through wisdom and compassion. The psychologist Jung says we can learn much from the study of Buddhism.

I make the latter comments having in mind a recent letter appearing in an issue of some magazine. The writer of the letter says he does not [illegible] to watch the missionary [illegible] American Christians. I [illegible] think anyone else does [illegible] that is, except the Devil [illegible] Frank. I have at least [illegible] salvation: Heaven or Hell. I shall not be lonely for at [illegible] shall have angels, and [illegible] worst, YOU . . .

What about my topic? [illegible] all I know ultimately, Frank, is that at the end we will still have prejudice against prejudice [illegible] why talk about it, huh. . . .

THE DAILIES

Do you remember that old daily paper back here on the coast—the Vancouver Sun? It seems that the Sun has changed its attitude towards racial discrimination. It is now backing the Canadian Indians in their fight against discrimination and as stated recently in their editorial page, they are building goodwill to Frank Calder and his followers.

The Vancouver Daily Province used to be my favorite until recently. I changed to another paper because the write-ups in the Province did not seem as interesting. However, it still rates as one of the top sellers on the newstands.

The Vancouver daily paper that I can give the most praise to is the News-Herald which is published at Homer Street. It is working towards the equality of all minority groups, a real anti-discrimination paper.

THE RIGHT MAN

Just recently I picked up a copy of the Christian Science Monitor. An article by Max Gy-strap interested me. He had written about Abraham Lincoln who is very well known and famous all over the world for his deeds towards the equality of mankind, regardless of race, color or creer.

If Lincoln was still alive today, we would be proud to have such a great man of democracy and this world in which we are living would be much brighter and peaceful.

His birthday was celebrated recently on Feb. 12 by Springfield, Illinois, his home town, as well as the entire U.S.A. Almost every public place in Springfield is named in the honor of this great statesman, the fighter of mankind.

日本戰殁學生の手紙――第一次大戰の時に戰死した多くの學生兵の遺書を集めた「ドイツ戰殁學生の手紙」が多くの感銘を與えたが、日本でも東京大學(舊の東京帝大)の關係者によつて東大學生のみの「はるかなる山河」に更にこれを含めて今度新しく全國戰殁學生の手紙を集めて「きけわだつみのこえ」が出版された日本の知識層の間でも非常な反響をよび、戰爭否定、平和への強いねがいを今更のごとく呼び起し、數版を數えているが、カナダの人々にも日本の心ある知識人、その一つの層としての學生の立場からの戰爭と獨裁者への抗議をこの書で知つていただくために是非おすすめしたい(價二百圓)

この書の内容――といつてもその當時はこつそりと手帳のきれはしや本の中にかきこまれたものだが、もし上官の眼に入つたら殺されたかもしれないが、しかもヒューマニズムと平和への強い欲求をもらさずには死にきれない氣持この眞珠のように輝いひらめきがこの他の多くの聲なく、語らずして死んでいつた人々又現在生きのこつている人々の中にもかたくなまわれきていたことを察してもらいたい。

かかる聲が少數の軍閥によつて敢なくふみにじられた歴史、今又平和をとりもどしたばかりにどこからともなく譯いはじめた。ここにその中から順序なく拾くして死んだ特攻隊などの學生兵の言葉をかかげる

「日本人の死は日本人だけが悲しむ。外國人の死は外國人のみが悲しむ。どうしてこうなければならぬのだろうか。なぜ人間は人間で共に悲しみ喜ぶようにならないのか」

「私は明確にいえば自由主義にあこがれていました。日本が眞に續くためには自由主義が必要であると思えたからです。これはバカなことに見えるかも知れません。それは現在日本が全體主義的な色彩に包まれているからです。戰爭において勝敗をえんとすればその國の主義を見れば事前に於てハッキリすると思います人間の本性に合つた自然な國の勝戰は火を見るよりも明らかであると思います」

「……人間とは、歴史とは、世界とは一体何なのだ。誰が歷史を動かすのだ」

「[illegible]軍人に[illegible]平和[illegible]世界が[illegible]るだ」

これが皆戰爭のさなかに書かれた言葉です。戰爭と血につながる日本について何らかのそれぞれの所見をもたれるカナダの方々、特に私は二世の人々の感想がこの書に向けられることを期待する

◇カナダのラヂオ時評家の第一人者のジョン・フィシャーの新著「ジョン・フィシャー・リポーツ」に就ての感想は又の機會にゆづるが、その中に「麥のローマンス」と題して面白い放送を行つた一文があるので、こゝに概略だけを紹介する

◇一八四二年、オンタリオに移住したスコットランド人デビット・ファイフ氏が故郷の一友人に小麥の種を送るよう依頼した。その友人は折柄中央歐洲の小麥を荷揚げ中の埠頭に來たので、ファイフ氏の依頼を思い出し、早速四パウンドの小麥を貰いうけてカナダに送つた

◇これを受取つたファイフ氏はその出來榮えを待つたがタッタ一本だけが成長。三ツの穗ができた。この一本の小麥をフェンスを作つて大事に育て上げていたところ、ある日飼つている牛が首をのばしてこの小麥の一穗を食つているのをファイフ夫人が發見。やつと牛を追い拂つた

◇かりに五秒も遅れておれば、この一本の麥穗は牛の餌食となつていたであろうし、そうなればカナダの歴史もその瞬間から變つていた事であろう。なぜなら、この未知の麥こそカナダを世界の食糧貿易とした元祖なのだから。この麥はカナダ内のどの小麥の種類よりも十日間も早く稔つたのであつた

◇寒國のカナダにとつてこれは大きな發見である。その一本から收穫した四十粒の小麥はあくる春にまかれた。かくしてファイフ氏が蒔つたこの小麥は二、三年の後には平原州全部に生々と成熟したのである

◇牛に喰れようとしたこの一本の小麥によつてカナダ大陸は成長し、鐵道は敷かれ、タウンが次々と生れて來て大きなエレベイターが建設されるに至り、世界のブレッドバスケットとしてのカナダをつくり上げることになつたのだ

在加日系人史上の功績者を擧げていただくというニューカナデアンの企てに對して、多くの讀者諸氏の協力を得たことを感謝したい。

大体これは、三、四の人々も書いて來たように、判りきつたことであるようでありながら、さて、誰が最も功績があつたかと考えて其の人を選り出すとなると、課題がぼくせんとして大きすぎ、なかなか六ケしいのが、事實であつたようである。

載の如き人々が擧げられた。そのうちで故鈴木悅氏が第一番に擧げられたことにつき一言しておきたい。

鈴木悅氏は、その當時の多くの人々が考えていたであろうような「社會主義者」ではない。まして「過激派」などでは決してなかつた。いわゆる自由主義者であり、彼が在加當時日本を風びしたデモクラシーの思想を移植して鼓吹し、在加日系人に合うようにこれを敷えんし、更に進んで身をもつてこれを實踐に移した人である。それが日系人の

日系人の思想と行動の啓發に一身を挺して戰いぬいたことは、人々のよく知るところである。

それは、鈴木氏亡き後において漸く理解され、その當時彼に反對していた人々も次第に彼の働きを認めて來たとも言えるであろう。（或はその當時に於ても理解はしているものゝ、彼の餘りにもするどきホコサキのために、身をかわす術なくして、やむなく反對の陣營に據つたものがあるかも知れない。そのことについては、いつか機會のあ

つて現われたことゝ考えられるのだが、鈴木氏を第一に擧げた人々の半數以上は、元の勞働組合員ではなかつたという事實が、これを裏書きしていると言えるであろうし、この人選には偏見などは全く加わつていなかつたと考え得られるのであることを特に注意しておきたいのである。

もう一つは私自身に關することである。主催者側の者が名指されるのは恐縮至極であり、これを發表するのはおこがましいことではあるが、名指された事實は事實としてだ

義主張をまげずに同胞の指針盤となり、鈴木氏歿後の民衆紙と更にニューカナデアンの日本文を擔當し、二世の問題や市協の結成、歸國申請のサイン取消運動等々、指導啓蒙につとめた」とあつたが、若しそういう讃辭が正しいならば、それは私個人に向けられべきことではなくて、それはそのまゝ『民衆紙』と『ニューカナデアン』にと置きかえられるべきことである。

最後に讀者諸氏の御協力を重ねて深謝したい。ニューカナデアンでは、近く更に第二

期待外れのカナダ政界

【オタワ發】僅か七議席の差で總選擧に多數黨として政權を握り、「これで押し切る」とアトレー首相は頑張っている英國勞働黨は三一五議席を占めたのに對し、保守黨系は一[illegible]二九六議席を獲得、獨立自由が八、その他三という選擧結果にカナダ政界は不滿と失望を抱いている。早ければここ二、三ケ月以内に遲くとも今年中には再び總選擧が行われるものと豫想されている。カナダとしては左右兩黨の何れかが政權をとる事に就ては左程の關心を拂わないが、英加間の貿易がどのように改善されるであろうかと案外この選擧に期待がかけられていたところ、わずか八席の多數で乘切ろうとする英政府の立場と、それに伴う政治的不安はますます英加通商上に暗い影を投ずるものと見ているのであって、もし總選擧があればむしろ保守黨の大勝利を願う一部政治家達もあると政界筋で語っている

けふレント判決

【オタワ發】三月一日にカナダ大審院は「カナダ政府に家賃統制の權利があるか否か」に就て判決を下すことになっている。もし政府にレント・コントロールの權能があるとすれば政府は現行レント統制法案の有効期間を更に五月三十一日から一年延長する補足案を提出承認を求める事になるのであり、その權能がオタワになければ各州がその責任を持つことになるわけである

有益な旅行
議員團が「さよなら」

【オタワ發】目下カナダの首都を訪問、上下兩院議會で歡迎をうけつつある日本議員團一行代表山崎猛氏は「デモクラシーがどのように動いているかという事を見學する機會を得た事はうれしい、そしてこの旅行は非常に興味深く有益であった」と記者團との會見で語ったが、貿易に關し特に戰前日本の安價物品の投賣りに就ての質問に次のように答えた

「過去において斯ることがあつたが、今や日本は世界國家の一家族として受け容れられるよう再出發し、將來に希望をかけている」

議員團一行はオタワ訪問を終え、空路で再びワシントンに歸つた

日系漁者復歸に反對表明の議員

【ヴィクトリア發】開會中のビーシー州議會に於いてアリンスルバート選出のマクレー議員(三四)は「日けいカナダ人を太平洋沿岸の漁業に復歸させるべきでない」と主張し、同時に深海漁業に從事するものを保護するために沿岸警備船を配置すべきだと述べた

米石炭罷業の成行

【ワシントン發】米炭坑夫のストライキはいよいよ最惡點に逢し、米政府は二十七日炭坑夫組合を法廷侮辱罪で裁判することになつた。この石炭ストライキのため全米に石炭不足を來し、十八万の勞働者が失業、製鐵、自動車その他生產工場は運轉中止、學校も休校する有樣だ

【トロント發】米國の石炭罷業が影響してトロントの貯炭量も近來になく極度に減少したために業者は一人の注文に半噸宛しか配達しないと語つて居り、軟炭は全然賣切れでコークス、下級石炭で間に合つている

【晩市發】戰前ビーシー州及米太平洋岸州からどしどし日本に石炭が送られていたが、日本では中共支那から大量石炭を購入しているので、ビーシー產石炭は上つたり。カナダ業者は何んとかして從前通り買つて貰いたいと悲鳴をあげている

在外事務所の設置
カナダ通商省は賛成と語る

【東京發】カナダ通商省官邊筋一は先週日本在外事務所をカナダに設ける事に反對する理由はないと次の如く語った。

「カナダは日本に貿易事務所を持つて居り、今日本がカナダに半領事館的な事務所を開く事になつても特に之を問題にする者はいないだろう。これにからむ政策上の問題もあるかも知れないが、日本が此のような措置をとる事を妨げるような重大な制限はないと思う」

「二世部隊」製作に 田中絹代が主演

【東京發】文藝春秋三月號掲載のローレンス・坂本氏の「日本の血とアメリカの心」と題する四四二部隊南歐の戰闘記錄は日本全國に非常な感銘深い記錄文學として評判となつている。こんどの坂本氏のものは實戰によつて得たものだけに生々とした内容で、讀む者をして心をうたれるものが多い。この四四二部隊の戰闘記錄を主題として、アメリカから歸つた田中絹代のプロダクションで映畫が製作されることとなつているが、完成の曉は「二世」についての日本内地の關心が一層深まることであろう

二萬四千件
米國司法省賠償申請

【ワシントン發】日系米人の立退損害賠償申請は二萬四千八件で締切後の申請は八十件あつたが賠償支拂總額はまだ確實なる報告をする運びになつていない旨二月廿二日米政府司法省は發表した。昨年議會は賠償豫算費として二百二十萬弗採擇したが今年七月から向う一ケ年間の合計年度に同じ賠償豫算費に關しては目下司法省が議會と折衝中であるが、司法省は賠償支拂促進のために桑港にも出張所を設置する筈である

擧げられた人ひと
過去半世紀の日系人功績者

過去半世紀間における「在加日系人史上の功績者」として讀者諸氏から擧げられた人々は合計三十六名であつた。このうち故人が廿一名で存命者が十五名(うち二名は在日)で高點順に上から五名を列記すると次の如くである

氏名	獲得票數の割合(パーセント)
故鈴木悅氏	二[illegible]・[illegible]
故山崎寧氏	[illegible]〇・七
故田村新吉氏	七・七
花月榮吉氏	七・七
故井上次郎氏	五・四
其他の人々	四六・五

鈴木悅氏は「思想的方面や勞働運動の指導者」、山崎寧氏は「初期日本人社會に於ける最も大きな指導者で新聞創始者」、田村新吉氏は「實業界、特に日加貿易の疏通を開いた人」、花月榮吉氏は「山林業で成功し社會公共事業にも貢獻した」、井上次郎氏は「農界の先達者であり指導者」としてそれぞれ擧げられたのであつた。また個々の人ではなくて「同胞史上に一大足跡を殘した義勇兵一同」と書いたのが二つ「戰前の民衆紙、戰後の「ニューカナディアン紙」」というのが一つ送られて來た

晩市へ日本マグロ
まず十五トンを目下荷揚中

【晩市發】日本でとれたマグロ十五トンが晩市バランタイン埠頭に荷揚げされているが、日本からマグロがカナダに輸出されるのはこれが最初で、もしこれから大量注文に應ずることになれば沿岸鰹漁約六十のトローラーに大打撃を與えるものとして憂慮されている。日本產マグロはサイズが大きく、一匹平均五十ポンドで罐詰用には無駄がないという點でわざわざ日本から罐詰會社がオーダーしたもので、費用を含めてトン四百弗位になる日本マグロはビーシー產一トン三百五十弗よりも高價でも結局は德になるという注文主の勘定らしい

Rebels Take First [illegible]
Of Semi-Final, [illegible]

Continuing to play the steady brand of game that carried them into second place paid off for the Rebels as they ripped the Aces in the first of a 2 out of 3 semi-final series on Feb. 24 at the C. of A. N. gym. The contest was typically playoff with both teams checking furiously in an attempt to win that all-important first game. The final score was 52-44.

The encounter opened slowly with most of the play restricted to the centre area as both teams drew a tight cordon around the hoop. The end of the first quarter found both teams tied 12-all with veteran Shige Ashikawa and Frank Sumi pacing their respective teams. In the second quarter, Mossie Mitsui and Paul Egami suddenly caught fire and sparked the Rebels to a 29-19 halftime lead.

As play resumed in the second half, Aces recovered from their second quarter lapse and fought desperately to tie the score and with Tom Miyashita and Seiji Takata tossing in 6 points apiece, the losers managed to come within 4 points of the Rebels as the score stood 45-41 with five minutes to go.

At this point Frank Sumi was banished on personals and was soon joined on the sidelines by hardworking Rebel captain Mush Fukumoto, the tower of defensive strength, two minutes later. With 2 minutes remaining, Aces coach George Takata moving up from guard to pivot position, suffered the ignominy of missing six successive free throws which could have tied the game. Terry Izukawa broke away at the last moment to garner the final basket of the night.

as extremely well- handled by the two referees from the Toronto and District League. Both teams showed a weakness from the foul strip with Rebels netting only eight out of 27 tries while Aces converted eight out of a total of 21 attempts.

On Friday, March 3, the second and possibly final game of the senior semi-finals will be played at 8 p.m. at the Church of All Nations. Aces are faced with possible elimination and all indications point to another crowd-thriller as the two teams renew the struggle to enter the finals.

Rebels: P. Hirano 12, Ashikawa 10, Mitsui 9, Fukumoto 6, Ioi 6, Kurita 5, Izukawa 4.

Aces: Sumi 11, Miyashita 10, Oda 7, S. Takata 7, Hayashi 2, Onishi 2, Arai 2, G. Takata 2.

In an exhibition game, the TNT team from the Junior League defeated the undermanned Whizz Kids 67-52. Sock Shintani of the W. K. and TNT's Jim Kamino were high scorers with 13 points each.

Nisei Juvenile Team Near "B" Championship

Arcade Grill are just a step away from the Juvenile "B" group championship of the Toronto Hockey League by virtue of their 2-0 shut-out win over Ossington Community Centre. The first game of the series was played at the new $125,000 Brampton Arena on Feb. 24 and the second and perhaps the final game will be played at Ravina Gardens on Thursday, March 2 from 7:45 p.m.

Captain Kaz Ishii of Arcade who perform in the TNHL as Nisei Flyers, sank the first goal at the 7-minute mark followed by Dave Yonemitsu's marker at 18-minutes. Paul Nivens in the Arcade nets, was outstanding, blocking out the Centre efforts. Joe Wani twice, Kaz Ishii and Ed Hisaki all drew minors in the second half but the team held the Centres scoreless.

APPRECIATION

The Nisei Students Club of U. T. wishes to thank all those who helped make the Glen Miller Nite on Feb. 17 a success. Appreciation is also extended to those who donated prizes.

Variety Shades Homesteads 2-1 In Opener Of Finals, Winners Sharp After Comeback

The upsurging Variety Grill pucksters after turning aside the stout bid of Nisei Flyers in the semis, shot into a 1-game lead with a 2-1 win in the best-of-three finals of the TNHL by outplaying the league leaders, Homestead Restaurant, in all departments, outshooting them 19 to 10, and, except for the brilliant performance of goalie Nobby Fujimoto, the score could have been higher. He was only beaten with two minutes remaining as the hottest scorer in the playoffs, Maw Mori, broke the 1-1 tie with a solo effort.

During the regular scheduled league games, the closest Variety came to a win in the battle of the eateries was a 3-3 tie and this first win came on an opportune time. Variety looked to be razorsharp after their thrilling comeback over the Flyers in the semis going into the last game two goals down while the Homesteads looked a little sluggish.

The game was not as rugged as in the semis where a total of 24 penalties were handed out in two games but six minors were committed, two each going to HR's ace defenseman Key Tanaka and Variety forward Ken Adachi.

Close checking featured the opening minutes but VG had the edge in play and their break came when Tanaka was thumbed off for tripping. The ever sharp first line of Yuki Kameda, Ken Adachi and Mas Kawaguchi grabbed the puck and in the ensuing passing play, Kam[...] registered the first goal. The [...] kept up a steady attack and only the brilliance of Fujimoto saved HR from further [...]ties. With minutes remaining in the first half, Homesteads gained a respite and came up with the equalizer, Jackie Tanaka sinking one behind Tin Goto on a pass by Gordi Mori.

The second half opened in direct contrast with the first as the play became wide-open with end-to-end rushes. Variety could not capitalize on two HR penalties to Tanaka and Mutt Makashima but Maw Mori who had been threatening all through the game, snared a loose puck at mid-ice, bored in on Fujimoto who seemed transfixed and fired one from 20 feet out which dented the hemp to put VG out in front 2-1 with two minutes to go. As the seconds ticked away, manager Mas Nakao yanked the goalie for an extra forward in a desperate measure but the VG defense held up.

Manager Noguchi is ready to wrap up the series with a win at Varsity Arena this Saturday and with it the championship of the TNHL and the Matt Matsui Challenge Trophy while Nakao of Homesteads is sure that his team will come back for two straight wins.

Standings Unchanged In Major Bowling Race

All teams in the Toronto Nisei Major Bowling League registered a 5-2 win over their opponents except Danforths who only salvaged the odd point from OK Cleaners, 4-3. Takeda kept their lead intact by beating Queen City while Variety, Yamada, Sora Construction, and Freedman beat Team Nine, Star Cleaners, Urabe and Best Cleaners, 5-2 respectively.

H. Iida was the high man with his 840 triple and 361 single. Others were T. Fujioka 809-278, M. Matsumoto 756-286, G. Kitamura 722-271, M. Mori 719-258, T. Yoshida 712-271, G. Mori 712-268, B. Tanaka 712-304, J. Nishizaki 710-277, Y. Saito 710-282, S. Ono 708-346, and D. Uchida 707-269.

Jrs. Finish Schedule Alphas Are Undefeated

The Junior League wiped up on Saturday, Feb. 25 and the Alphas from Hamilton finished on top with ten victories in as many games. TNT of Toronto were runners-up showing a seven win three loss record.

Two Toronto quintets, Jets and Stags, were tied for third position taking four out of 10. Hamilton Angels had three wins, and Toronto Barons trailed with but two victories.

Junior semi-finals get under way this Saturday at the C. of A. N. gym as Jets and TNT stack up together at 8 p.m. and the Alphas and Stags will tangle immediately following.

Winnipeg YBS Holds Election At Meeting

WINNIPEG. — The Winnipeg YBS in its Annual Meeting at the C.C.F. Hall on Feb. 12 held an election of officers. Saburo Nishimura was chosen president.

Other officers elected for 1950 include Amy Sawada, vice-president; Jean Watanabe, recording secretary; Ryuko Ayukawa, corresponding secretary; Karl Ayukawa, treasurer; Bob Ito and Kaz Yamamoto, auditors; Terry Sawa and Lucy Sakamoto, social convenors; Kay Ibuki and Tucker Yamane, sport convenors; Mitsie Sakamoto and Joe Ito, dramatics; Kay Inouye, publicity; and Akira Sakiyama, educational.

The group heard a report by Jean Watanabe on the activities which took place during the past year. It also was informed of the site of the new Buddhist Hall in the vicinity of William and Arlington on which construction will commence this spring.

PASSING THRU

Dispensing with any running commentary on the battle, I can say that the smallish side was definitely not holding their own and one of them was on the point of getting his eyes gouged out. However, what I fondly believed saved this fellow's eyes was the crowd itself and most particularly, the protests of one old lady who vehemently uttered her displeasures.

Now perhaps down in Atlanta, Ga., or any Jim Crow town below the Mason-Dixon line, the results may have been different. There they might have yelled, "Out, out, damned eyes!" Whatever it might have been there it didn't happen here. . .

Maybe I got that impression from just seeing the movie, "Intruder In The Dust". MGM's filming of the William Faulkner book is the fourth in the cycle of Negro prejudice movies but it just doesn't seem to pack the same wallop as the preceding three. Faulkner who is better known for that hush-hush book, "Sanctuary", tells a story of a proud Negro who would have been hung by a Negro-hating mob but for the efforts of a boy. The film occasionally resembles a typical mystery melodrama and unfortunately like the others, no immediate solution or panacea to the problem at hand.

But the boy played by Claude Jarman, in a rich film-end dialogue with lawyer David Brian, learns in a breathless jump to maturity that "people are running away from themselves" and that discrimination must be first conquered in one's own mind.

port themselves and who are without anyone to care for them, we will reach the time when Japanese aged will have to enter these institutions. And it should be up to us to provide comfort to these people.

But instead of waiting until the time comes, the idea of starting a welfare fund now and be prepared for the eventuality should be a better plan. If present condition is any criterion, then it would seem that tougher times might be ahead which would mean that there would be more people needing assistance. Thus the idea to start now has some merit.

And why couldn't some organization or better still, all organizations in any one community, work together to sponsor a benefit function for the creation of a welfare fund?

Noted Can. Missionary In Japan Passes Away

The death of Dr. Luther L. Young, well-known Presbyterian missionary, was learned recently. The 72-year-old man served as missionary and advisor at the Korean Christian Church in Japan and had been in ill-health for some time.

He first went to the Orient in 1925 and remained there until World War II. At the request of the Korean Church, he returned last year with his wife. Before going to Japan, he held pastorates near New Glasgow, N. S., and Moosejaw, Sask.

Fellowship Retreat

The Metropolitan Nisei Fellowship will hold its annual Retreat on Sunday, March 5 beginning promptly at 4:15 p.m. in the Morley-Punshon Room in the Metropolitan Church. Supper will be served during the evening's program.

Rev. Edward Yoshioka and nine students from Emmanuel College will make the Retreat of special interest to all who come.
